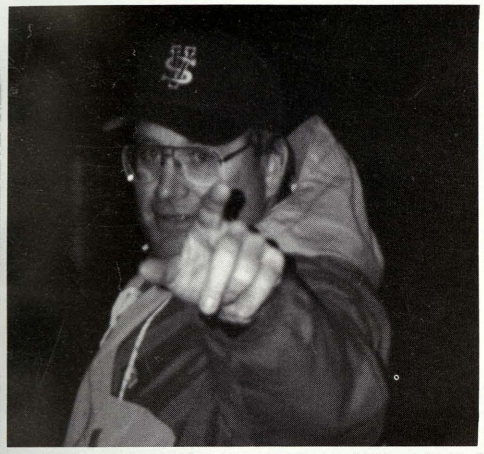
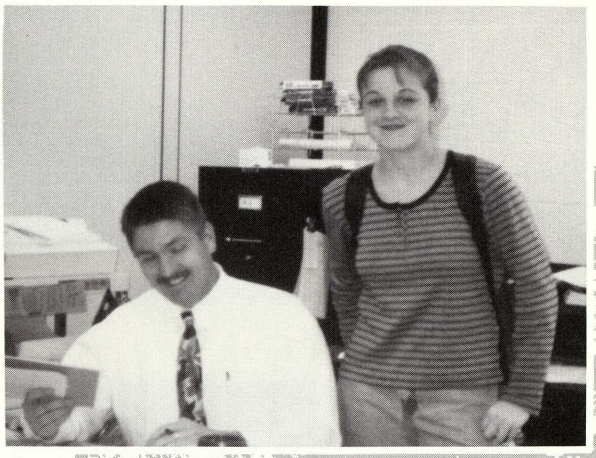
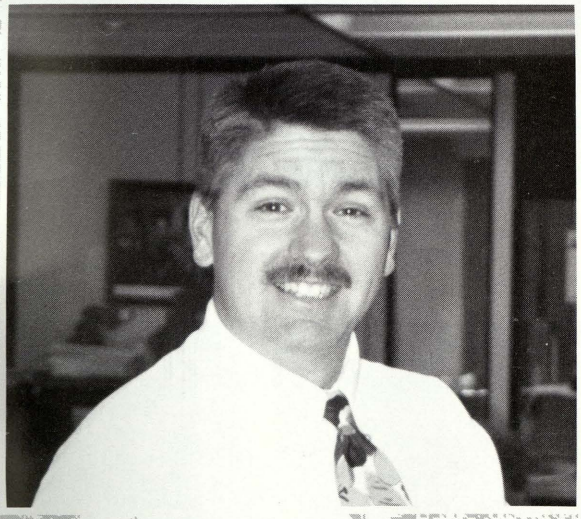
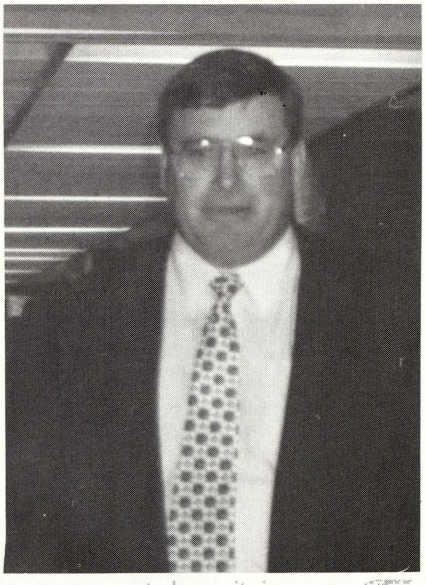
Mr. Rutledge and Mr. McRae









Mr. Rutledge and Mr. McRae, spending their second year at Swan Valley, have proved to be a great addition. While enjoying them here, they too said that they enjoy Swan Valley. Upon talking to them, there were some important issues brought up. One of those issues being, why the roof seems to leak all of the time. The joker, Mr. Rutledge said, "Well it can't drip from the floor!" Mr. McRae just said we needed roof repairs. Another important issue brought up was who looked the best in women's clothes. Mr. Rutledge came out and said, "Howard Stern." Mr. McRae didn't really think that anybody did. With Mr. McRae helping out in every way and with Mr. Rutledge's sense of humor, they are definitely a great set of principles!

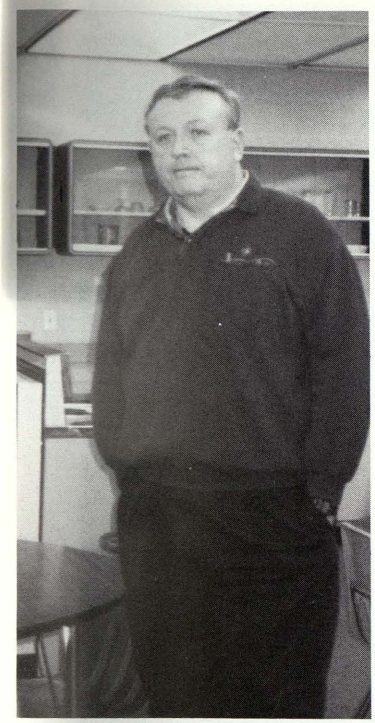
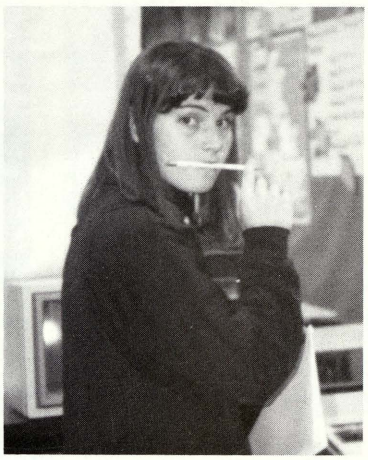
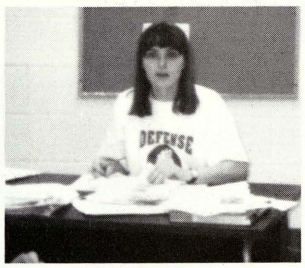
New Faces At Swan Valley







The 1996-1997 school year welcomes many new faces, three of which include Mr. Mahoney, Miss MacIntyre, and Mrs. Mendoza. Mr. Mahoney helps out with special education. Miss Mac goes back in time to teach History and Civics. Mrs. Mendoza works in the office, helping all of the late people get into class. We would like to welcome all these new faces and hope they stay with us for many years.

Varsity Golf

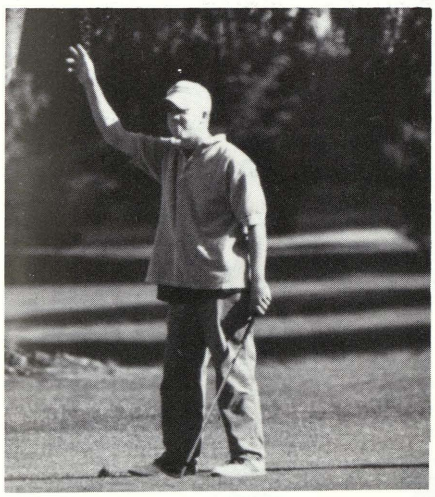
The varsity golf team consisted of seven boys this year. "We had a really good year," said Jason Lantz. Up until this year, their record was 21-0. This year, however, they lost one match. The golfers made it to Regionals, losing by one place. They placed fourth, but you have to place at least third to go to states.

The golfers this year also had a lot of fun. When they went to Treetops, they flipped a golf cart. A couple of golfers were put on probation because they almost hit the coach with a golf ball. The golf team not only had a successful year, but also a really fun year.



Jason Lantz and Nathon Wilson battle it out on the golf course.

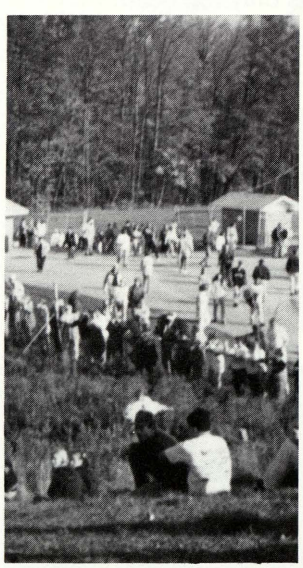
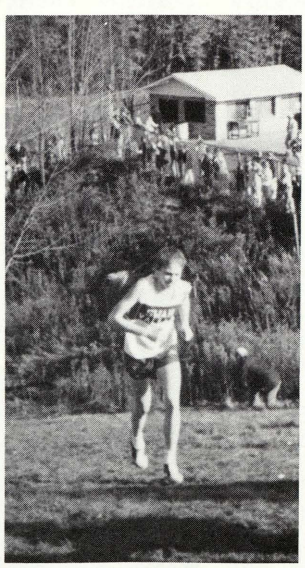
The students who participated in Cross Country this year were very hard working and showed strong dedication and skills. They spent the summer before school preparing and getting into shape. They practiced twice a day, despite the horrible heat. On top of the heat, they ran 4 to 8 miles at practice!

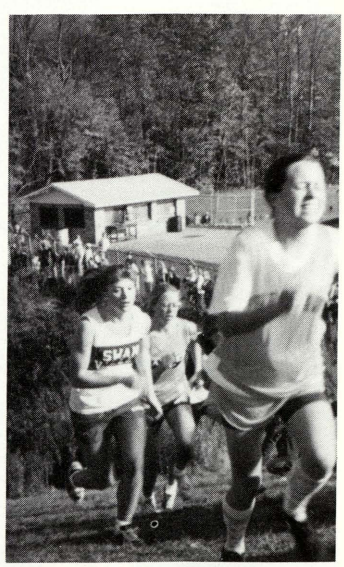
When the races finally began, they ran 3.1 miles in just one race. Jennifer Speer, Ashlee Dean, Jon Deibel, and Matthew Putnam really did well at that. They did so well, they made it all the way to the state finals!



Pushed by the crowd, Christopher Shafer takes the lead on the final stretch of the race.



Ashlee Dean, leaves everybody in her dust!



Jennifer Speer, exhausted, pushes her way to VICTORY!

M.S.U. basketball camp was where their successful season began. The team worked hard to get ready for the season. The season began with the Tip-off Classic Tournament. There were four teams: Nouvel, Michigan Lutheran Seminary, Valley Lutheran, and Swan Valley. The girls annihilated Nouvel the first game and went on to wipe out MLS in the finals.

During the first half of the season, the Varsity team went on a winning streak. There was only one team they needed to beat. Never in Swan Valley history have they beat Frankenmuth. Not until this year, anyway. It was a close game, but at the buzzer, a pass went from Schultz to Tack. Tack put up the shot to win the game. It was the greatest win of the year!

In the second half of the season, the team was considered Top Dog. Not only in their conference, but to the press, and to their fans. In their own minds, they were still working hard to pursue their goals, only it was a struggle. Winning the District Title got the team back on track. For a week, they prepared for Regionals. After that week, their hard work and determination payed off with a Regional Title. They won a tough game, playing the quarter-finals against Roscommon. This is where their season ended. But, with only two seniors leaving, they will be back strong again, next year.

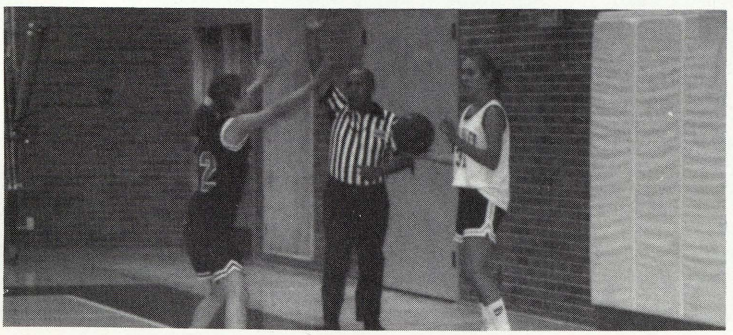
The Swan Valley Junior Varsity Girls Basketball team accomplished a great deal this season. Ending with a 17-3 record, the girls went undefeated in the conference for the second time ever. The team also had the second most wins for the J.V. ever at Swan Valley.

Coach Monahan said, "My favorite part (of coaching) was watching everyone grow up together." He also commented that all of the girls became more confident, and their character really showed through by the end of the season.

At the beginning of the season the team was quiet, as Mr. Monahan will admit. They did open up and do the usual teasing of their coach. All in all the season turned out to be a fun time.

So THIS is what you guys do to prepare for the basketball game?



Simon says: "Reach for the sky."

Freshmen Girls Basketball

Mr. Dawson led a hard-working and determined freshmen girl's basketball team to a 8 and 10 finish. According to Mr. Dawson, their strongest point at the beginning was the team's defense. Yet, by the end of the season, they improved their ability in all other aspects, too. "They had more confidence," said Dawson. "They were able to adjust to the different make-up of the teams." Mr. Dawson, being a new coach, has done a wonderful job and is excited for next season.

When asked about the coaching methods of Coach Koons, one of the players simply said, "It was alright!" Well, it must have been better than alright if they finished the season with a 7-3 record and won the Tri-Valley Conference title. The Varsity also made the playoffs, with the help of M.V.P. Ben Doyle. Although they finished with a record of 7-3, Coach Koons hopes to have an even better record next year.

These Vikings watch anxiously as their fellow teammates handle a j well done.

The J.V. Football team, according to coach Hoewe, was a complete joy to work with. Even though the team lost their first game of the season, they played hard to get that win back. Even after that first loss, Coach Hoewe still believed that the team would succeed throughout the entire season. When Coach Hoewe stated that remark, he was clearly right. Even after the team lost Adam Avila after the first game they worked hard anyway. As Coach Hoewe stated, "Adam was good, but he was one of twenty, and we needed all of them." The team's successful year was based on their team effort and great skills. The J.V. football team will do wonders for the varsity team if they join next year.

The 1996-1997 varsity pom-pon squad made memories that will last a lifetime. They went to Badgerette Camp at Central Michigan and then qualified to go to the Mid West Invitationals in Chicago where they recieved the Presidential Spirit Award. In February the squad formed a very successful pom-pon camp of their own. Along with Mrs. Jacobi, their new coach, and lots of dedication these girls had a very successful and fun year.

Last year, the Girls Varsity Volleyball team made it all the way to states. This year was no different. With seven of the ten team members returning from last year's team, this year has been just as successful. Coach Ann McIntyre says the leadership to get to states came from her six seniors. She said the seniors weren't satisfied going to states just one year, so they committed themselves to get there again. Losing six seniors, Ann McIntyre is also confident that next years team will keep the tradition of winning the Tri-Valley Conference title alive saying, "We will still be tough!"

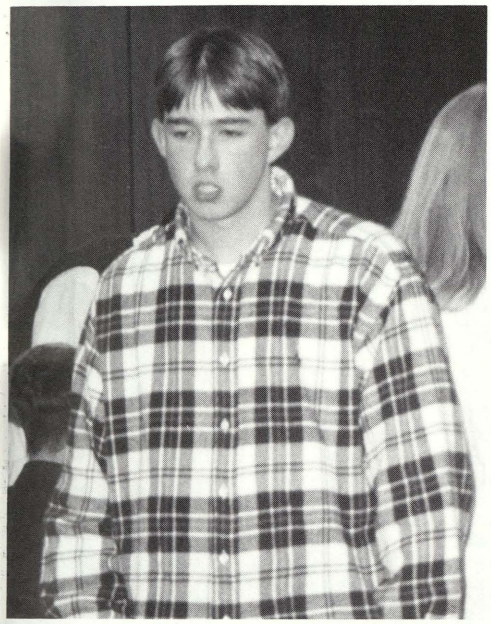
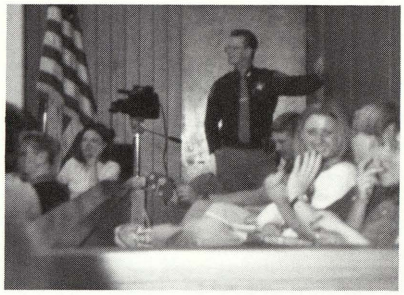
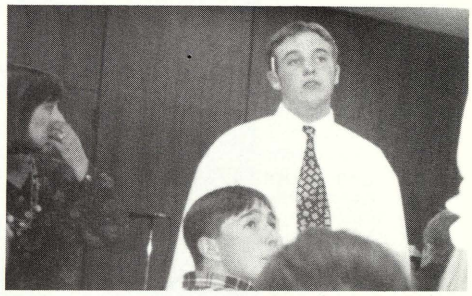
Law Day



Jeremy returns to his seat after making his statement.



Oh, the life of a ballif!



Justin, Jeremy, and Mrs. Tesauro get their plans together.

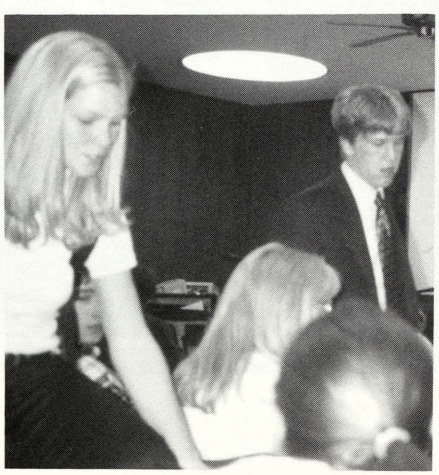
Jamie tries to stay awake during recess.

On April 31, 1997, thirty students from Swan Valley headed to the Saginaw County Courthouse. It wasn't what you think, as none of these people were in trouble. These Swan Valley juniors and seniors were participating in the annual events of law day.

The case, with a script written by Arthur Hill students, involved an old man's missing social security check, and his nephew was accused of stealing it. The defense, represented by St. Charles, proved the nephew did not take the check and the jury found in favor of the defendant.

Swan Valley team members included prosecution members: Justin Comerford, Jason Lantz, and Nathon Wilson, fighting for the plantiff. Opening and closing remarks were made by Sarah Rock and Matthew Theisen, trying to gain favortism with the jury. Witnesses included the old man by the name of, Jamie Krapohl, his daughter Sheila Hoppe, Carey Jackson, and Jeremy Matula.



Christine and Jason work on their defense.

Senora Tesauro and Senorita Swanton did a great job with the International Club this year. There were 78 members from Spanish and 2 members from French class for a grand total of 80 members in all.

To become a member of the International Club a student must be in a foreign language class and pay a $5.00 membership fee. Grades are not considered.

Two main events this club has are the annual Christmas Party and the Road Rally. This year many participants were involved and everyone had fun. The winners of the Road Rally were Terri Abbott, Kara Stamiris, Jenny King, Janel Hemker, and Stacey Matuzak.

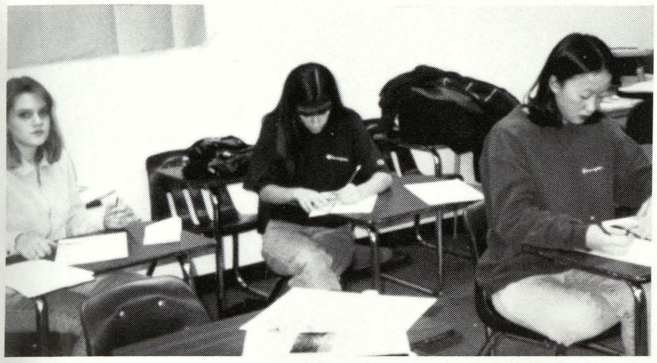
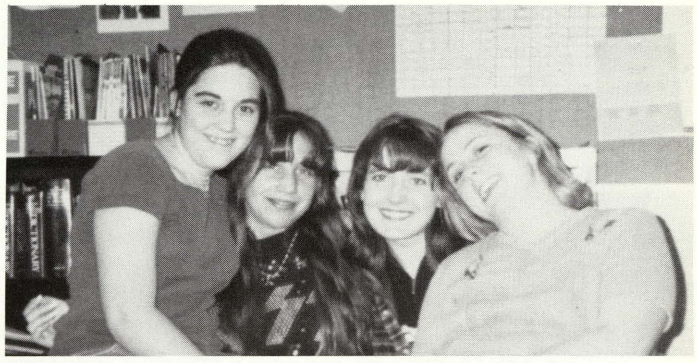
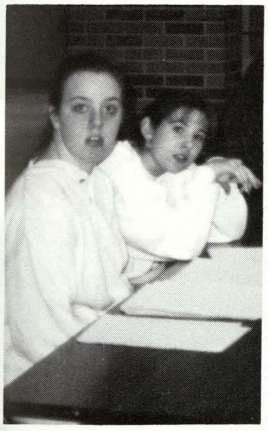
Staff



The sophomores worked expertly.



The fabulous foursome.



Nikki and Sarah, hard at work.

Every year the Swan Valley High School yearbook staff works diligently to produce the very best Valhalla possible. It takes a dedicated group of individuals with the shared goal of compressing a full school year's worth of life, from one summer to the next, to accomplish this task. This year's staff was no exception and they worked with utmost speed and efficiency.

With our best wishes we dedicate this issue to the students of SVHS and most especially to the graduating class of 1997.

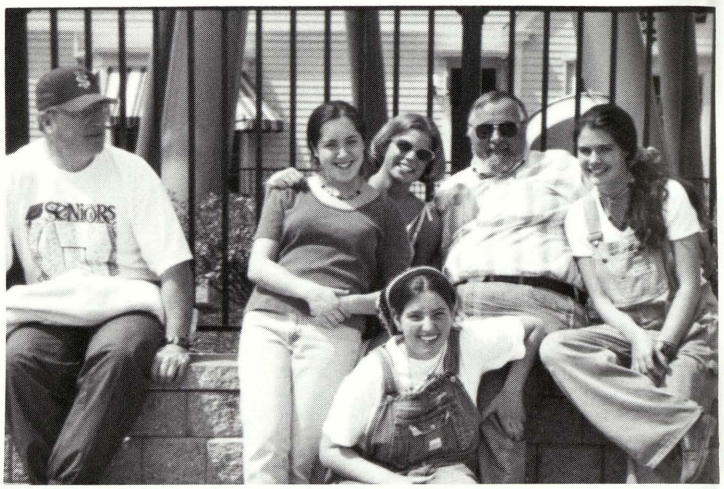
SENIOR TRIP — Cedar Point May 28

Mrs. Shaltry, Chris Yancer, Nissa Cirillo, Amy Bell, Karen Stamann, and Amanda Meyer take a break after the rides.



Sarah Rumpel, Tiffany Reynolds, Nicole Cross, Shannon MacNeil, and Mr. Schrems strike a pose as Mr. Rutledge watches.

On May 28, a group of anxious seniors gathered at the high school at 5:30 in the morning and waited for their buses. As the buses pulled into the parking lot, the anxious seniors gathered up their belongings and loaded the buses, finding seats near their friends. Finally the buses rolled out of the parking lot. The journey was non-stop till breakfast at McDonalds. Some seniors curled up and went to sleep, while the others watched the movies provided by chaperons, or talked to their friends. As the buses pulled into the McDonalds parking lot, the seniors fought to get off the buses, to get breakfast. After waiting for breakfast, the seniors climbed back on the buses and awaited their arrival at Cedar Point.

Finally there, the fun at Cedar Point begins. "Be back to the buses by six o'clock p.m.," a chaperone calls out.

At six o'clock, the tired and sunburned seniors climbed back into the buses and rode to Saw Mill Creek. Everyone was excited about the dinner and dance, the swimming, and just being together for the last time.

After dinner, the giftatories were given out. Some seniors were upset about not getting anything, while some of the others were embarrassed. At the dance, the seniors sang their class song, "Cheers", for the last time. As the evening events happened, camaras flashed, to record last memories. At midnight, the seniors got back on the buses and slept through the long ride home.

The arrival at the high school was the hardest part of the whole trip. The seniors gave each other long hugs, and started crying as they said their final good-byes! As the cars pulled away, the tired seniors returned to new memories. This day, spent with friends and classmates, each with their own individual diversities set aside, made one of their last days together a day to remember!
